

Supreme Court Historical Society Presents

The Supreme Court

and my Hometown!

Delve into the innerworkings of the federal judiciary and the Supreme Court of the United States.

St. Louis High School Students

- Explore a Supreme Court Case about students' rights from St. Louis, Missouri
- Collaborate with students from across your district
- Network with Federal Judges, Bar Association Lawyers, Historians, and Eyewitness Experts
- Create a display in The Judicial Learning Center at the Thomas F. Eagleton U.S. Courthouse

Apply

Spots are LIMITED! Apply Today!

- Use the QR Code to access more information and the application
- Obtain 1 (one) Academic Reference
- 10-12 grade students (2023-2024 SY)
- No Prerequisites Required
- Applications DUE June 2, 2023.
- Questions? E-mail Nicole Maffei, Director of Civics Education, nmaffei@supremecourthistory.org

Program Outline:

Research the Landmark Hazelwood v. Kuhlmeier (1988) decision from its origins in the U.S. District Court, Eastern Missouri to the Supreme Court of the United States.

- Late Summer and Fall sessions including field trips to the courthouse and The Judicial Learning Center
- In-Person and Virtual Sessions with Legal Mentors
- Learn to Brief a Court Case
- Create a collaborative installation at the Federal Court House to educate your community on the impact of the case!
- Participants will gain valuable experience and

Supreme Court Swag!

Locally Sponsored and Hosted by Program Sponsored by Supreme Court Historical Society

supremecourthistory.org

Federal Bar
Association
St. Louis Chapter